

OCLC Online Computer Library Center

Creating Alliances With Emergency Responders: Part II -- Cooperative Disaster Planning Models

Benefits of a Cooperative Disaster Planning Network

- Saving Money
- Resource Utilization
- Service Resumption Issues
- Group Education and Information
- Insurance Issues
- Recovery Planning
- Technical Issues

Saving Money Through Cooperative Planning

- Group Training and Consulting
- Central Supply Caches
- Consortial Contracts with Recovery Vendors
- Consortial Insurance Contracts

Better Resource Utilization

- Greater Number of Trained Responders
- Familiarity with Institutions in Consortia
- Utilizing Strengths of Each Staff
- Larger Community Volunteer Base

Service Resumption Issues

- Reciprocal Borrowing
- Computer Hot Sites
- Interlibrary Loan Fulfillment
- Donation Processing Centers

Group Education and Information

- Shared Disaster Plans
- Shared Building/Floor Plans
- Familiarizing Staff and Physical Plant
- Baseline Preparedness, Response, and Recovery Training
- Annual Disaster Plan Update/Practice
- Recovery Vendor Presentations

Insurance Issues

- Consortial Policies and Buying Power
- Collection Valuation
- Identification of High-Probability Risks

Recovery Planning

- Local Efforts
- The First 48 Hours
- Business Resumption
- Long-Term Recovery

Technical Issues

- Review of Safety Systems
- Archiving of Digital Data and Electronic Resources/Records
- Computer Hot Sites

Cooperative Disaster Recovery: Network Models

- New Mexico Preservation Alliance
- California Preservation Networks
 - 49-99 Cooperative Library System
 - LAPNET
 - SILDRN
 - IELDRN
 - (Info at cpc.stanford.edu/about/networks/html)

New Mexico Preservation Alliance

- Volunteer Organization
- Institutional Representatives and Interested Professionals
- Publications
- Education
- Expert Responders
- No Web Page

SILDRN – San Diego/Imperial County Disaster Response Network

- Formed 1995; Early Grant Funding
- Web Literature on Preparedness & Recovery
- Cooperative Supply Containers
- Supply Sources and Vendor Directory
- Regular Education Programs
- orpheus.ucsd.edu/sildrn

IELDRN – Inland Empire Libraries Disaster Response Network

- Began 1987, Early Grant Funding
- New Members with One-Time $150 Fee
- Supply Caches
- Training
- Mutual Aid Agreement
- www.ieldrn.org

Cooperative Disaster Planning Needs

- Point Person at Each Institution
- Sharing of Disaster Plans
- Consulting and Training Activities
- Central Supply Cache – Identify Host
- Consortial Vendor & Insurance Contracts

Cooperative Disaster Planning – Proposed Action Steps

- Review of Plans and Risks
- Disaster Assessment Surveys
 - Buildings, Collections, Staff & Patrons
- Consortial/Joint Plan
- Preparedness, Response, and Recovery Training Models
- Establish Response Team
- Recovery Vendor Presentations
- Insurance Issue Discussions
- Develop Technical Response
- Mutual Aid Agreement

Working Together – Examples from the Alliance for Response Forums

- Cultural Institutions now have a regular seat at the Boston Emergency Operations Center
- Boston's Emergency Operations plan will have a new section on cultural and historic resources
- One Texas County is adapting CERT training for museums and libraries
- FEMA is exploring an EMI training course with a cultural heritage component.

Resources on Disaster Recovery

- Emergency Response and Salvage Wheel. Information for the public. Heritage Emergency National Task Force. www.heritageemergency.org
- NEDCC: 978/470-1010 or www.nedcc.org
- CCAHA: 215/545-0613 or www.ccaha.org
- SOLINET: 800/999-8558 or www.solinet.org
- Amigos: 800/843-8482 or www.amigos.org
- Tom Clareson, Global Product Manager, Planning & Education Services, Digital Collection Services, OCLC: Tom_Clareson@oclc.org or 800/848-5878, ext. 6071