WordPress 3.9.2 Security Release August 6, 2014

WordPress 3.9.2 is now available as a security release for all previous versions. We strongly encourage you to update your sites immediately. This release fixes a possible denial of service issue in PHP's XML processing, reported by Nir Goldshlager of the Salesforce.com Product Security Team. It was fixed by Michael Adams and Andrew Nacin of the WordPress [

Use the profile page to change your options. You can edit your admin color scheme to change the way the site looks to you (but not to viewers). Your username will be assigned, but you can edit your nickname. You will be assigned a password, which you can also change on this page. If you forget your password, we can create and send you a new one.

Be sure to check the appropriate Categories boxes. Always check your network. If you want to send the story to the Home page and the Networks home page, click the “AFR Headlines” option. Type Tags in the box below to help sort your content. Click “Choose from the most used tags” to see examples. You can preview your post by clicking the “Preview” button at the top right. When you’re done, click “Submit for Review.”

If you want to “back date” your post (i.e., list a pre-August 2014 event/activity), simply note the back date you’d like to use at the end of the post and the administrator will make the change.

The screenshot shows the WordPress 'Add New Post' interface for the site heritageemergency.org. The user is logged in as 'Howdy, junger'. The interface includes a sidebar on the left with navigation options like 'Dashboard', 'Posts', 'Comments', 'Profile', 'Tools', and 'Collapse menu'. The main content area has a title field with the placeholder 'Enter title here' and a rich text editor with various formatting options. The right-hand sidebar contains several sections: 'Publish' with buttons for 'Save Draft', 'Preview', and 'Submit for Review', and 'Categories' with a list of categories including 'AFR Headlines', 'Ask AFR', 'Atlanta, GA', 'Boston, MA', 'California', 'Central PA', 'Cincinnati, OH', and 'Denver, CO'. The 'Tags' section has an input field and an 'Add' button. Red circles highlight the 'Preview' and 'Submit for Review' buttons. Red arrows point to the 'Most Used' category tab and the 'Add' button for tags.
