

Emergency Preparedness for Philadelphia Cultural Heritage Institutions

Learn How to Stay in Business when a Disaster Strikes!

Lyrasis

3000 Market Street, Suite 200
Philadelphia, PA 19104

Register by Oct. 12 by emailing us at: oem@phila.gov

Monday, October 19, 1:30 - 4:00 p.m.

1:30 p.m. – Registration & Refreshments

1:45 p.m. – Program Begins

Presenters:

Ryan Taylor, Health & Medical Planning Coordinator
Office of Emergency Management, City of Philadelphia

Stacy A. Irving, Senior Director, Crime Prevention Services &
Chairperson, Philadelphia Crime Prevention Council, Center City District

Gene Janda, Chief of Fire & Emergency Services for Public Safety, University of Pennsylvania

Topics:

Continuity of Operations Planning - Continuity Planning Toolkit

Emergency Access System - Gain access to your facility when an emergency strikes!

Evacuation Plans - Evacuation Routes, Rallying Points for Center City & University City High-Rise Office Buildings

Stay Informed When Disaster Strikes - Emergency text alerts from ReadyNotifyPA, Alert Philadelphia and Penn Siren Outdoor System (Penn SOS) Sponsored by:

Did you know?

Local experts estimate more than 70% of regional businesses don't reopen ...

Fires. Floods. Blizzards.

Will your institution survive?

Preparing makes sense. Get Ready Now.

Sponsored by:

