

Response to Community-wide Emergencies

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Lessons for Museums

- Have a long list of how to reach key employees.

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

OUT OF THE STORM

HOME REPAIRS

- To report an electrical problem, call 7582.
- The Florida Department of Professional Regulation is offering assistance from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday through Monday, June 16-17. Call toll-free 1-800-352-7829. Call for the state and approved program members and see approved program members at your agency. Call 800-352-7829 or visit www.fpr.com.
- The American Red Cross provides resources for home repairs and rebuilding programs. Visit www.redcross.org or call 1-800-725-6287.
- Home Depot provides free advice and assistance. Visit www.homedepot.com or call 1-800-451-0661.
- Home Depot provides free advice and assistance. Visit www.homedepot.com or call 1-800-451-0661.
- Home Depot provides free advice and assistance. Visit www.homedepot.com or call 1-800-451-0661.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

- Neighbors will provide a list of groups and organizations willing to help with Hurricane Andrew-related efforts. Send information to neighbors, 6700 West Rd., South Miami, Fla. 33153.

HOW TO HELP

- To donate blood, call the American Red Cross, 1-800-888-1347.
- To donate money or goods, go to www.redcross.org or call 1-800-888-1347.
- To make donations, visit www.redcross.org or call 1-800-888-1347.
- To help pack food boxes, go to www.redcross.org or call 1-800-888-1347.
- To help pack food boxes, go to www.redcross.org or call 1-800-888-1347.
- To help pack food boxes, go to www.redcross.org or call 1-800-888-1347.

TEMPORARY SHELTER

- For help with shelter, food or emergency aid, contact your local emergency management agency.
- For help with shelter, food or emergency aid, contact your local emergency management agency.
- For help with shelter, food or emergency aid, contact your local emergency management agency.

MISSING PERSONS

- Missing persons are being sought in the following areas: Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Broward County, Palm Beach County, St. Lucie County, Indian River County, Volusia County, and Brevard County.

PETS

- To report lost pets, call 1-800-451-0661.
- To report lost pets, call 1-800-451-0661.

INSURANCE

- To report lost or damaged property, call your insurance agent.
- To report lost or damaged property, call your insurance agent.

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Lessons for Museums

- Back up your back up plan. You never know who will be available to help.

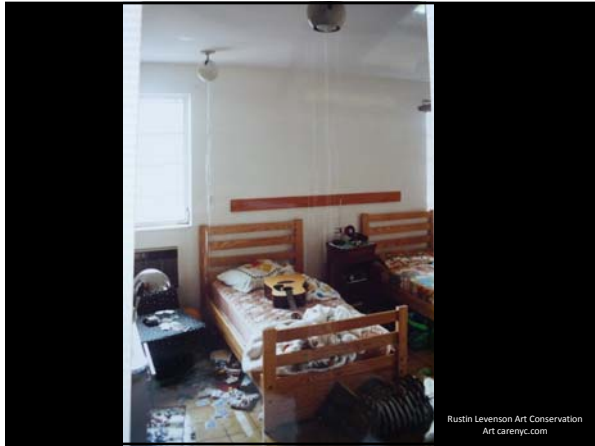

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Lessons for Museums

- More emergencies will follow the initial emergency.

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Lessons for Museums

- Be prepared to access records, plans, contacts without electricity.

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Lessons for Museums

- Be prepared to share resources with Museums in other parts of the area and other parts of the state.

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Lessons for Museums

- Prearrange to access resources:
 - Transportation
 - Refrigerator trucks
 - Storage
 - Personnel
 - Conservators

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Lessons for Museums

Prearrange access to your facility with city officials.

Have the most important looking ID badge possible.

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Lessons for Museums

- Expect the unexpected

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Lessons for Museums

- Act as quickly as possible.
- Damaged works that look hopeless, may be able to be conserved.

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

Expect to play a long game.

Rustin Levenson Art Conservation Art carenyc.com

